DCAA's Financial Liaison Advisors (FLAs) are trained, experienced auditing professionals assigned to buying commands to meet the changing needs of the acquisition community. These on-site professionals assist procurement and contract administration organizations by providing the following services:

- Provide general advice on accounting, auditing and financial matters in areas of DCAA responsibility
- Facilitate communication between DCAA and the government acquisition community
- Describe available DCAA audit services
 - Prior to contract award
 - After contract award
- Facilitate and coordinate audit services with cognizant Field Audit Offices (FAOs)
- Describe criteria DCAA uses to assess proposal adequacy for audit
- Help Government Acquisition officials understand advisory audit report results in consultation with FAO
- Facilitate attendance of Field Auditors at negotiations where an audit report has been issued
- Provide general advisory services to Source Selection Evaluations in areas of DCAA responsibility
- Participate in training sessions and seminars with procurement or contract administration offices
- Provide input, when appropriate, on requirements that should be included in Sections L and M of an RFP
- Educate acquisition community on DCAA services, such as:
 - Role of DCAA in contract procurement
 - Audit coverage of subcontractors
 - Use of regression analysis and other quantitative techniques in audits
 - Cost Realism
 - Evaluations of information other than cost or pricing data
 - DCAA role in Wide Area Work Flow (WAWF)
- Provide DCAA policy guidance that could impact procurement
