Due Dates of Submissions

- Incurred cost claims are due six months after completion of the contractor's fiscal year end.
 - Per the Allowable Cost and Payment Clause (FAR 52.216-7(d)(2))
 - Allowable cost and payment clause applies to cost-reimbursement type contracts (FAR 16.307)

Delinquent Submissions

- If submissions are six months delinquent, DCAA will recommend a decrement factor and for the CO to make a unilateral determination. (FAR 42.703-2(c)(2))

Incurring Cost Adequacy Review

- We check for the schedules listed FAR 52.216-7(d)(2)(iii)
- Any missing or unreconcilable schedule could cause us to report the submission as inadequate.
- Recommend self-assessment

Adequacy Checklist

Audit Requirements

- FAR 31.201-2 (d) Requires contractors to maintain records and supporting documentation to demonstrate allowability and allocability of costs.
- FAR 31.205 also requires specific documentation to demonstrate the allowability of certain cost elements

Examples of Specific Documentation Under FAR 31.205

- FAR 31.205-33, Professional and Consultant Service Costs, requires the following evidential matter:
 - Details of all agreements (e.g., work requirements, rate of compensation, and nature and amount of other expenses, if any) with the individuals or organizations providing the services and details of actual services performed;
 - Invoices or billings submitted by consultants, including sufficient detail as to the time expended and nature of the actual services provided; and
 - Consultants' work products and related documents, such as trip reports indicating persons visited and subjects discussed, minutes of meetings, and collateral memoranda and reports.

Examples of Specific Documentation Under FAR 31.205

- FAR 31.205-46, Travel Costs indicates costs shall be allowable only if the following information is documented:
 - Date and place (city, town, or other similar designation) of the expenses;
 - Purpose of the trip; and
 - Name of person on trip and that person's title or relationship to the contractor

ICE MODEL

ICE is an EXCEL spreadsheet that provides contractors with a standard user-friendly electronic package to assist in preparing timely and adequate incurred cost submissions.

It should result in less time being spent in:

- Submission preparation.
- Supporting the audit.

ICE BENEFITS

- User Friendly
- It includes all schedules required for an adequate submission per FAR 52.216-7
- Updates are performed electronically and the linking feature updates all impacted schedules.
- ICE creates an inventory of electronic files that can be used in subsequent years to compare costs and facilitate submission preparation.
- The submission of an adequate proposal may expedite contract closings.

Frequently Asked Questions:

- Can DCAA grant an extension for submitting my final incurred cost rate proposal?
 - No. Extensions for submitting final rate proposals can only be granted by the administrative contracting officer per FAR 42.302 and FAR 42.705-1(b)(1)(ii). To locate your responsible administrative contracting officer, please contact the Defense Contract Management Agency (DCMA).

Frequently Asked Questions:

- When will DCAA determine adequacy of my incurred cost submission and perform the incurred cost audit?
 - Auditors should evaluate a contractor's incurred cost proposal upon receipt and immediately notify the contracting officer of significant deficiencies.
 - It is DCAA policy that indirect submissions will be audited as promptly as possible after receipt.

Frequently Asked Questions:

- I'm preparing my submission(s) (e.g. contract pricing proposal, forward pricing rates, incurred cost, etc.) and would like to ask the DCAA auditor some specific questions on my submission to make sure I'm on the right track. Will the DCAA auditor give me some specific advice on how to prepare my submission?
 - Answer: A DCAA auditor can answer general questions related to the acquisition regulations. For example, if a contractor asked advice on what the FAR requires in certain situations, a DCAA auditor would be able to provide that information. Auditors may also provide general advice on what constitutes an adequate submission. However, auditors are precluded from assisting contractors in preparing and developing the contractor's submission because doing so would create a significant threat to the auditor's independence. Contractors should look under the "Guidance" and "Checklist and Tools" tabs on DCAA's website for guidance about the adequacy of their specific submission.
