

TERRI L. DILLY
DIRECTOR
DEFENSE CONTRACT AUDIT AGENCY

Ms. Terri L. Dilly assumed the position of Director, Defense Contract Audit Agency (DCAA) in July 2022. Ms. Dilly is responsible for the operations of the entire Agency, which operates under the direction, authority and control of the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Comptroller). DCAA is one of the largest Government audit organizations consisting of a headquarters staff, three regional offices, a Field Detachment and four Corporate Audit Directorates with field audit branch, resident, and liaison offices in more than 300 locations throughout the United States and overseas. DCAA is composed of a staff of approximately 4,000 personnel, 88-percent of whom are professional auditors. The Director has decision-making authority on Agency policy, resources and operations and manages an annual operating budget of approximately $650 million.

Ms. Dilly is a career civilian with over 31 years of experience. She began her career in 1991 with the Air Force Audit Agency (AFAA). Prior positions include cost analyst; audit manager; program manager; office chief; Chief, Policy, Oversight, and Systems; Director, Security and Special Program Audits, and Assistant Auditor General, Support and Operations. She also held the position of program specialist with the United States Postal Service Office of Inspector General. In January 2019, Ms. Dilly was appointed as the Director of Program Analysis and Financial Management, United States Transportation Command (USTRANSCOM), Scott Air Force Base, Illinois. She was responsible to program, develop and integrate the USTRANSCOM budget and manage resources for funding the global Defense Transportation System. She also developed policy and executed the Air Force's $13.5 billion Transportation Working Capital Fund and managed the Joint Component Command's financing in responding to Combatant Command mobility requirements to meet critical joint war-fighting readiness and national security interests.

Ms. Dilly graduated from St. Ambrose University in Davenport, Iowa, with a Bachelor's degree in Accounting. She received a Masters of Science in Management of Information Systems from the University of Phoenix, and is a graduate of the Professional Military Comptroller School at Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama. Ms. Dilly is a member of the Information Systems Audit and Control Association and the American Society of Military Comptrollers Institute of Internal Auditors and holds the Financial Management, Level 3 Certification.

Ms. Dilly has received numerous awards and recognitions for performance excellence throughout her career, including the Presidential Rank Award – Meritorious 2021 and the Civilian Service medal for Global War on Terrorism.
