

D. SCOTT PERRY REGIONAL DIRECTOR WESTERN REGION

Mr. Scott Perry assumed the position of Regional Director, Western Region, Defense Contract Audit Agency (DCAA) in September 2021. Mr. Perry serves as the principle advisor to the Director and shares full authority and responsibility for total management and operations of DCAA's resources within the Western Region. He is responsible for the execution of the Agency's mission and strategically leads approximately 800 employees in providing mission-critical contract audit and financial advisory services to the Department of Defense as well as other Executive Departments and foreign governments. He oversees and manages an annual operating budget of approximately $85 million.

Mr. Perry has over 25 years of extensive leadership experience in auditing and financial management. His DCAA accomplishments include implementation of numerous DCAA initiatives and advancements including the issuance of the first-ever Professional Practice Guide, which provided the framework for implementing specific materiality thresholds for contract auditors. He was also instrumental in establishing DCAA's first-ever program to acquire the services of independent private auditors to conduct incurred cost audits.

Prior to joining DCAA in 2018, Mr. Perry spent over 19 years with the U.S. Army Audit Agency. With the Army, he held multiple Program Director positions, including his last three years as the Program Director for Strategic Initiatives, Communication, and Audit Policy. Prior to that, he was the Program Director for Financial Management Audits, responsible for audit coverage of the Army's budget and financial operations enterprise. He also served as the Program Director for Installation Operations Audits with audit responsibility for Army programs across the Army's installations in the U.S. He joined DCAA in April 2018 and served as the Deputy Assistant Director of the Policy and Plans Directorate. In this capacity, he supported the Assistant Director in the formulation, development and issuance of contract audit policy for the Agency including procedures, standards, and guidelines for the conduct of audits. He provided technical direction and guidance for the performance of Agency-wide audits, including decisions regarding application of Federal Acquisition Regulations, accounting/costing principles, and Government Auditing Standards into all DCAA guidance. In October 2020, Mr. Perry was appointed to the Senior Executive Service as Deputy Regional Director, Western Region, the position he currently holds.

Mr. Perry holds a Masters of Business Administration and Master of Arts Degree in Public Administration, both from Syracuse University; and a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from Elizabeth City State University. He is a graduate of DoD's Defense Comptrollership Program and his certifications include Level III - DoD Financial Management Certification and Certified Defense Financial Manager. He has received numerous awards and recognition of excellence performance throughout his distinguished career with the Department of Defense.
